The DEH Difference

DEH is a stocking distributor of pallet rack, shelving, wire decking and other warehouse items. We provide dealers and re-sellers with quality products and services with the goal of helping to stay on schedule and within budget.

The DEH team has more than 20 years of experience in the material handling field. You can look to us as your trusted resource for all questions pertaining to racking systems and other material handling solutions. We're here to help you provide solutions to your customers.

The longevity of DEH in the material handling industry has allowed us to form partnerships with engineering, installation, and project management companies. As a result, we can work with you so that you can provide these services to your customer.

What Our Customers Have to Say About the DEH Difference

“My experience with DEH has been positive. Quick response and typically have stock of the items I need. Their ability to ship orders on time goes a long way with helping to keep our customer happy.”
-Joe Vander Zanden, Indoff, Inc.

“Working with DEH was easy and enjoyable. Customer service answered my questions and sent me a quote in a timely manner. The DEH representative was courteous and guided me through how to order the product for my customer and followed up on my inquiry as to when order was received and shipped. A good all-around experience.”
-John Gilles, Power-Draulics
